

As a subscriber to XM Radio I pay for what I listen to. Why should the National Association of Broadcasters have any say in limiting what I receive as part of my XM subscription? If the XM Instant Traffic & Weather is in demand by the subscribers and providing it is legal, ethical, and profitable, then why limit what the market provides to its paying customers? I urge you to reject NAB's petition 04-160.

-Scott Ford

Upper Arlington, OH